

To Whom It May Concern:

Fred Potvin is a fine example of a pianist/entertainer on a 5-star line. Not only is he a fine pianist, not only can he sing, but his selection of music and song can make you laugh, or make you spell-bound with the speed, yet seeming ease of his playing.

His skills are strong enough to carry a show in the main room, as I found out when one of our acts missed flight connections. He is a strong personality, and is well-liked, as can be seen from the passenger comment cards.

Fred is a welcome addition to the Caronia, and to Cunard.
